Jilka to attend series of meet & greets

SALINA, Kan – First Congressional Candidate Alan Jilka will continue with meet and greets in the central Kansas area on Wednesday, May 5.

"Getting out into the district and meeting the individuals who make this district so unique is one of my favorite parts of the campaign," Jilka said.

Jilka will be at each location for about one hour.

Locations for meet and greets:

8 a.m., Ellsworth: Spooner's, 210 N. Douglas Ave., Ellsworth

10:00 a.m., Seward: Mom's Bar & Grill, 420 Lincoln Ave., Seward

Noon, Kinsley: Tune-Time Deli, 612 Niles Ave., Kinsley

1:30 p.m., Garfield: Pawnee County Co-Op, Garfield

3 p.m., Larned: Scraps, 612 Broadway St., Larned

Following the meet and greets in Ellsworth, Stafford, Edwards and Pawnee counties, Jilka will be the featured speaker for the Rice County Democrat's monthly meeting. The meeting begins at 6:30 p.m. at Schrier's Restaurant, 700 N. Grand, Lyons.

This is the third in a series of meet and greets around the state. Jilka will be on the road May 4 visiting Marion, Chase, Morris and Dickinson counties. He previously completed a sweep of northwest Kansas.
