Jilka to kick off general election with "Let's Make it Right" tour

SALINA, Kan — Alan Gilka, congressional candidate for Kansas' First District seat, will kick off his general election with a four-city "Let's Make it Right" tour on Wednesday, Aug. 4.

"The way to overcome the problems that we face is for Americans to work together and seek out viable solutions," Gilka said. "The struggles facing our nation are neither Republican nor Democratic. They are issues all Americans face.

"Let's work together and let's make it right."

Jilka's Aug. 4 stops will include:

8 a.m. Meet & Greet, Salina: Moka's, 109 N. Santa Fe, Salina.

9 a.m. Rally, Salina: Gilka and his supporters will gather behind the City/County Building, 300 W. Ash. The gathering will be held in the courtyard between the City/County Building and the Salina Public Library

11 a.m. Rally, Hays: Ellis County Courthouse, 1204 Fort St.

1 p.m. Rally, Great Bend: Barton County Courthouse, 1400 Main St., Great Bend.

3 p.m. Rally, Hutchinson: Reno County Courthouse, 206 W. First Ave., Hutchinson

5:30 p.m. Parade: Gilka will participate in the Tri Rivers Fair parade in Salina.
